

In Search of Eagles

When: Saturday December 12, 2015, 9:00 am - 11:00 am

Where: Eagle Viewing at Burlington Dam, McHenry Dam, Algonquin Dam & Carpentersville Dam

What: View bald eagles using our scopes and binoculars at each location. Maps to the locations are available online at www.MCCDistrict.org, www.hackmatacknr.org or at Prairieview Education Center.

After your outdoor excursions, enjoy some free hot chocolate at the Prairieview Education Center in Crystal Lake. Also, sign up for our special free presentation “Eagles of Illinois”! Details below.

Cost: All activities are FREE

Who: YOU!! Join representatives from the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, Friends of Hackmatack National Wildlife Refuge, Illinois Department of Natural Resources, and McHenry County Audubon as we search for and learn about eagles.

Eagles of Illinois

This special presentation, by the Illinois Raptor Center, will follow the day's other activities. You will meet two kinds of eagles (Bald and Golden), so you can see the power and beauty of these truly magnificent birds of prey. You will also see other birds of prey that are commonly misidentified as eagles.
